Is Getting Tired of The Populists
Trying to Run Everything in Meade.

The Fact That Some Men Have Become Crazy on the Question

Does Not Shake His Faith in the Grand Principles of Democracy.

ALBERT JOHNSON'S SPEECH.

All Populist papers are teeming with "frank talk" to heaven, "penetrating" the two old political parties, especially the Democratic party, heaping coals of fire on not only the heads of the President, congressmen and Senators but their constituency as well, declaring in thunder tones that the only way acceptable of reaching the seat of the disease that has been manifesting itself in a catalogue of ills, is by handing over the reins of the government to the Populists who are getting a little hungry for "pie," crying like babies because they can't get a smell.

This county is besieged with Populist papers. We Democrats—some of us at least—get them gratis. We read them, of course, read everything we can get hold of from Tom Paine's Age of Reason down to Darwin's Theory. They do not tend to our intellectual powers. The belief is firm within us that there is a God, and "therefore." The fact that some men have become crazy in their search after knowledge, doesn't shake our faith in a Divinity, and the fact that some of our representatives have gone wrong, is no indication that all Democrats are thieves. The veracity of our minds is not moved by the falsest of calumnies, a gang of rascals and Jackals—calumniators, "dead beats," or Populists? If you please.

I was invited to attend the club meeting at Oak Grove the night of the 10th inst, and hear a grand display of eloquence in the Populist line, from Mr. Johnson, of Hardinsburg. When there is anything of a grandiose nature going on in this county, Sirocco's nightcap to take it in so I took in Johnson's eloquence. The only thing I regret, in regard to listening to the harangue is, I had to put a mustard plaster on my neck, to draw the soreness out which was caused from the anothered convulsions of laughter that wouldn't stop, never a solid moment keeping his eyes off of oratory, his mellow, sweet-scented voice rising and falling "twixt earth and heaven like the wild harp-strings," till one imagined he could see him receding in ethereal space with the angels of heaven h. kneeling him up. He spoke with speed, or vigor, or whatever it was, from a manuscript in tablet form, never a solid moment keeping his eyes off of his paper only for a glance around the room now and then to see if every body was awake.

We were all very much awake, but are yet undecided whether he intended that address for a parody on the psalms of David, a burlesque on Solomon, or was trying to paraphrase Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress, but suffice it to say, we were so sufficiently full and more would have been fifty-fold," as the girl said when she showed her plate back at the table and refused to accept of any more, her mother having cautioned her to eat sparingly when in company, and when she was pressed to continue bare, excuse herself thusly: "Thank you, I have a sufficient and more would be superfluous." But you see the old gal got things kinder mixed. Johnson never made an application from start to finish. It was a continued prologue of psalms in cloaking, he said that he had become very religious since he had embraced the Populist doctrine, and didn't see how the Democrats and him could be in the same party from becoming members of the Populist church, that Jesus Christ was the best Populist that ever lived. When he brought Christ into the ring, it was after he had finished reading his manuscript and had fallen to pieces like an old barrel that had been under the influence of too much sunshine. Elsie Adams caught the climate then by rising to his feet and telling the audience that he (Adams) was sorry that Mr. Johnson didn't speak plain enough for them all to understand him.

Elsie then opened the doors of the church and invited sinners to come forward and join the Populists while the congregation sang an old familiar hymn, "Every body go up," guess they wanted to search the scriptures and see if Johnson told the truth about Christ being a Populist. I honestly believe that some of the Populists in this county think that the second coming of Christ, is close at hand, and when He makes His appearance, He'll say, first thing to the Populists, "Well done thou good and faithful servant, &c., &c." and will say to the dead, "All you Populists rise first." Then He'll say, "Where is Jim Arnold?" Jim will speak up right quick, "Here I am Lord, I was a Democrat and a Republican until I know you'll give me a high seat in the reunion of Heaven." Then He'll ask "Where is Elsie Adams?" Jim Hayes, Davis Young, Ed Love, Ben Current and Dock Gray?" They'll all answer with one voice, "Where we are, Lord, we've been the best Populists in Meade County, don't know but what we're a little better than you, Lord." Sirocco.

ROSELAND.

Look out, Jack frolic is coming.
Mr. Frank Rhodes Sr., is on the sick list.

Mr. John Rhodes went to Hardinsburg last Monday.
Miss Mattie Fraize is visiting at Owensboro and Henderson.

Miss Kate Glascock is teaching a very interesting school here.
Farmers in this section are about through cutting hedges.

Farmers are busy cutting up corn and getting ready to sow wheat.
Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Rhodes went to Glendale last week shopping.

Several from this neighborhood are going to take in the big show next Monday.
Mrs. Belle Basham, who has been crazy for a good while, died the third of this month.

Miss Maggie Rhodes, of Irvington, is visiting relatives on Long Lick, Mount Carmel and Yellow Lake.
Late Cannon and Jimmie Mattingly attended the Sunday school at the Jarboe and Rhodes school house.

Mrs. Mattie Rhodes and little sons, Ernest and Roy, are visiting her parents and relatives near Owensboro.
Mr. Bob Rhodes has been covering Mr. Cliff Mattingly's new barn and can't enjoy those excellent grape vines.

As the year season is fast approaching, we are getting anxious for that long-looked-for party. What do you say, Salsie?
We are sorry to hear of the death Mrs. Cynthia Brown. She had reached her 75th year. I guess she is missed very much, to die at an old age.

Miss Mary Mattingly and brother, Jimmie, of Mount Carmel, visited Miss Becky Wilson at Mr. John Compton's last Sunday.
Mr. Charles Jarboe, one of our enterprising merchants, McDaniel, went to Louisville last week and purchased his fall stock of goods.

We were very sorry to learn of the death of little Yonnie Parsons, the lovely little daughter of Mr. Sam Parsons, who died the 28th ult.

We hear Mr. Mattie Mattingly, better known as old grand mother Mattingly for she has reached her 90th year, is expected to die at any time.

Miss Maggie Rhodes, of Yellow Lake, and Mr. W. A. Frank, of McDaniel, visited Miss Mattie Mattingly, of Planter's Hill, last Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. R. H. McDaniel has been kept busy this summer and fall during the rage of typhoid fever. He had twenty-five cases and treated them all successfully.

The golden October days have come with their cool breezes and pleasant air. How the gentle breezes make the autumn leaves tremble and sigh as if they by them in its joyful glow for soon it will command them to their summer home and carry them to some foreign spot to wither and perish.

Wheat and Corn Thieves.
A few days since thieves broke in and stole six bushels of wheat and about the same of corn from Mr. T. D. Ireland, near Skillman. He followed it to Cloverport where it was sold to the mill, and got the exact weight of each together with the name of the thieves. He says that sympathy prevents him from prosecuting them. They are both young men living in the neighborhood, and the leader of the two is a confirmed thief. He should have been in the penitentiary many years ago. This class of cattle, which is a pestiferous scab on society, usually live in some little log cabin out in the woods, and such a thing as making a living in an honest way never enters their head. They generally hunt and sleep all day and at night they pillage the property of honest neighbors. A year or so since this same leader entered a neighbor's meat house to steal. His retreat was hurried and he fastened his knife in the house. The next morning the farmer found the dog and shot it. We insist that the grand jury has a mission.—Hawesville Clarion.

GLENDEANE

Miss Hock, Hardinsburg, visited Mrs. J. R. Mattingly last week.
Mr. Hodges and family, of May's Grove, Hardin county, are visiting Mr. Bob Weller.

Miss Lattie Moorman and father, Mr. James Moorman, spent Saturday and Sunday in Cloverport.
Miss Lillie Scott, Hardinsburg, after visiting Miss Carrie Owen, returned home today, Monday.

Alban Dean, Owensboro, spent Sunday at the home of his father, W. J. Dean. Dean is employed in a number of cases in the Hardinsburg court this term.

Bro. Rutledge preached to the children at his Golden apartment Sunday. In the evening he came over and gave one of his good sermons to an attentive congregation at the Church chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hardaway, Mrs. C. D. Hardaway and Mrs. S. F. Drury, all of Bewleyville, have been visiting Mrs. David Moorman of this place, and Mrs. Frank Peyton, of Falls of Horse, since Friday. They return to their homes.

At an interesting school exercise Friday afternoon, Robert Moorman showed superior ability in answering miscellaneous questions in U. S. History. Miss Mattie Moorman pronounced the most puzzling questions, while Henry Moorman was a close second in selecting the unanswerable ones.

The many(?) young men(?) who in their brave(?) deeds of great daring(?) fire weapons at night within a few hundred yards of churches and preaching places, had themselves bent across "the line" (the line of decency) long enough to receive a good spanking, they would be improved considerably. A pistol report seems to us would ring echo and rebound in their hollow heads for hours, so that these same lads would be unable to get sleep enough during the remainder of the night. Try pop-guns boys.

Our news-gathering opportunities being unusually few this week, we request only a short stop for our town. In the absence of other matter we would be pleased to note the fact:

That Amos Board, of Hardinsburg, is one of the best hotel men we ever saw. The new proprietor of the Hardinsburg House surely made a lucky hit when he selected Amos Clerk. This assistance given to such a man as John Alexander certainly amounts to very large patronage from the eating public.

That John Dyer more than deserves the poor housekeeper's place. If the Democrats of this county never give him another office, they will overlook one of the best men the party has and show a lack of gratitude to one of its most faithful workers.

That newly-uniformed, duty-bound Hose Morgan, of Stephensport, was one of the noblest looking fellows we saw in attendance at court last week. He informed us that the members of the Christian church are going to erect a church, but that he has no money.

That Robert L. McDaniel has accepted a position with W. H. Newman & Co., of Louisville. "Reb" has moved his family to Hardinsburg and is now a veritable drummer with a full supply of drumming cattle. Burns will aim both his gun and his estimate.

That we gladly note another Breckenridge boy is not without honor in his adopted home. This time it is J. M. Pile, of Wayne, Neb. Mr. Pile had in the best men the party has and show a lack of gratitude to one of its most faithful workers.

Some Criticisms on Charlie Blanford's Speech.

Charlie did not act fair with Uncle Jonas. He should have divided time with him.

Charlie's little scheme is to have an appointment advertised for some Big Card that will draw a crowd and then Charlie takes the trick.

Mr. Blanford championed Ben Harrison but failed to tell us of his little game up at Indianapolis in that street car case lately.

The intelligent masses of the Democratic party are not so badly disappointed as Charlie Blanford seems to think, they did not expect that Congress at one fell swoop like a butcher killing an ox would undo all the robber tariff and boodle bounty laws that the Sherman, the Blaine, the Chandler and Reeds and McKinleys have been years and years getting up for the benefit of the few against interests of the masses.

Memor.
Mrs. Nancy B. Hardin, widow of Moses B. Hardin died, September 20, 1894, at her home near Lodi, aged seventy-seven years seven months and fourteen days. She suffered in her last illness for about three months, yet was very patient. She joined the Baptist church at Walnut Grove, about thirty years ago and lived a quiet Christian to the end of her life. She was a loving and indulgent mother and a kind and obliging neighbor. Her loss is deeply mourned by her children and many relatives and friends. She was buried on the side of her husband in the family cemetery, on the farm where she spent all of her married life.

"This lady was made in this room some years ago. No matter how long she has been dead, she will still be found here. Buy the medicine that they say is best, and from the store nearest you, and you will find it. Buy the medicine that they say is best, and from the store nearest you, and you will find it."

But when the purple gleam of twilight sent the shadows of the night, we thought we were to see the old man, but he was not. We were to see the old man, but he was not. We were to see the old man, but he was not.

Mr. Watkins Williams Wynne owned 137,025 acres of land in Wales, and has no more rights over 100,000 acres more. Of the land he owns 112,000 acres are occupied by Welsh-speaking tenants. The tenants are 914 in all. Among them twenty-four farmers have held the same land for 300 to 250 years each; three in one parish an average of 333 years apiece; one for 400 years, while the Fourties family are supposed to have occupied Garthly 1,000 years.—New York Sun.

400. McKinley will speak in Louisville, to-morrow, Thursday October 17th.

Tues are Democratic times sure enough. Twenty-one pounds of sugar for $1.

We can all take sugar at ten-twenty-one pounds for a $1. Good Democratic times here.

The Republicans are doing the howling now, but the Democrats will do the voting in November.

The Hopkinsville Kentuckian has moved into handsome new quarters of its own. We congratulate you Bro. Meacham.

Helen's twenty-one pounds of sugar for a dollar, says the grower. It's a hard thing for Republicans like Lewis to swallow, but he has to do it.

Hon. Chas. Blandford gives the Democrats thrashing for passing the Wilson bill, but he never says once that his party was put back last year, that it would renege the McKinley law.

Decease 20th is the last day for filling certificates of nomination or petitions with the county clerks, in order to get on the official ballots for November. If any candidates have failed to attend to this important matter, they have only a few days more to take action.

HIVES should bear in mind that cattle, pastures or of any kind, killed until the 15th of November, the 20th of October to November 15th, and last until January 1st. From the 1st day of January until November 15th, there is a penalty for catching, killing, pursuing or having in possession any of these birds, after being caught or killed, from $5 to $25. Violation of any of these birds during that time is an evidence of guilt.

We'll venture to say that there isn't a prettier church of its size in the state than the one the Catholics of this city have just completed and it is to be dedicated next Sunday. Father Newman, the pastor, has been working day and night since the old one burned down last February and it is due to his energy and hard work that the building has progressed so rapidly to completion. Next Sunday will be a great and joyful day for the Catholics of this city and vicinity. They are to be congratulated.

The wholesale price of granulated sugar October 1, '94 under the McKinley law was 9 1/2 cents, October 1, '94 under the Wilson law it was 11-16 of a cent. Official figures show that the price of sugar under the Wilson law has not been increased, but that it is consistently lower. But note the effect of the two laws in the revenue received by the government from this one source. The revenue to the government under the present law is $41,000,000, under the McKinley law it was nothing. McKinley gave to the trusts free raw sugar and a prohibitory duty in favor of their product of refined sugar. The present law gives to the Treasury a large revenue, enabling Congress to reduce the price on other necessities of life and cut down the profits of the trusts over fifty per cent. And the Democratic party is responsible for this.

BRANDENBURG.

Yes, man should be sent to the Fiscal Court unless he is in favor of good roads and will promise to do something to get them.

ARTHUR Ford is now managing editor of the Courier-Journal. Arthur is climbing right up to the top in his profession and we are glad to see it. And here is a fact which will surprise you. Arthur is the only one in the office to help his good old father sign checks and run the business department of that great paper. We congratulate both of these young men and the Courier-Journal, too.

We would like to know just one thing, what is it, what are the Democratic orators in this county doing? Are they all asleep? Here's Blandford, Wilson, and Burton, three howling Republicans, going to every school district in the county and giving the Democratic party particular thunder and not a Democrat dares to open his mouth in reply. We don't understand it, especially when we have such men as Murray, Meyer, Barnes, Brown, Babbage, Monarch and a host of others who are the peers of any of the Republican speakers and are capable of wiping the earth up with them. Are you doing your duty gentlemen to your party. Get to the woods and say "I am a Democrat," if nothing more.

The Democratic party believes in free trade and fair wages; the Republican party advocates protection and less purchasing power of wages. The working man is awake. He knows which of the two he must choose to prosper and meet on equal terms the competition which confronts him. He knows that he has not been receiving higher wages than he did when the McKinley law went into effect and that the purchasing power of money has not gone as far in household commodities as it did before that infamous measure was passed. He knows this and knowing it there can be but one result for him to take intelligently—Covington Commonwealth.

One morning Maxey awoke to a real sense of his situation. He loved, and why not? Was she not beautiful, intelligent, refined, virtuous? Was she not in verity a woman of all women, such as a man might be proud to be able to introduce to his friends as "my wife?" Was she any the less adorable because everybody knew the name of her father?

"Who can help you?"

A Marvelous Showing.

The U. S. Government, through the Agricultural Department, has been investigating the baking powders for the purpose of informing the public which was the purest, most economical and wholesome.

The published report shows the Royal Baking Powder to be a pure, healthful preparation, absolutely free from alum or any adulterant, and that it is greatly stronger in leavening power than any other baking powder.

Consumers should not let this valuable information, official and unprejudiced, go unheeded.

Sinking of the Steamer E. O. Hagen.

The steamer E. O. Hagen, one of the Louisville and Evansville mail steamers, sank in 7 feet of water in Chenault's reach 8 miles above Replemport, Ky., and 10 miles below Louisville on last Thursday night at 7:30 p. m. She had been taking on hay and was endeavoring to get in the channel again when she struck a log, tearing away a portion of her hull and in a few minutes the water covered the main deck. She now lays in a bad condition.

Pilot Joe Fisher was at the wheel at the time of the accident.

The cargo of freight was light and damaged slightly. There were 15 ladies and three gentlemen on board. They were taken to Stephensonport on the Hart and from there came to Louisville accompanied by the postal clerk of the boat. The Hagen had been repaired for the fall trade which makes the loss to company greater. She was named for Mr. E. G. Hagen, the wholesale grocer of Evansville, Ind. Mrs. G. B. Shaw.

Shot Through the Heart and Will Recover.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., Oct. 9.—The Mobile physicians have encountered a remarkable case. Two weeks ago Will Young, a vigorous youth, while working in his field, was shot by an assassin. The bullet went entirely through his body, yet he is still alive. The entire medical fraternity agree that the ball penetrated the heart, but to make the case doubly sure prepared accurate drawings and measurements of the points of entrance and exit of the bullet, together with a diagnosis of the symptoms, and sent them to Dr. Keene, of Philadelphia. He and other leading experts there examined into the case and pronounced it the only one on record of its sort. It is believed Young will recover.
